

Sinclair Broadcasting's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. They use the public airwaves free of charge, and are obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Their decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is an obvious example of the dangers of media consolidation and a clear violation of both civil and electoral law.

Your failure to require Sinclair to obey the law makes you an accessory.

Do your job.

Sincerely,
J. Fricano
